gdpr data privacy statement

GDPR is the European privacy law designed to protect you and give you control of your data. The purpose of the GDPR is to have the same data protection laws across all EU member states and to give its citizens more control over how and when their data is used. Although the GDPR is an EU regulation, any company that markets goods or services to EU residents, regardless of its location, is subject to the regulation.

We take your privacy seriously at SPMU by Bella Terry and respect all your rights under GDPR. We will only use your data as you expect and will never sell, share or otherwise abuse your data. You can contact us at any time to change your preferences or ask about the data we store or ask us to delete, or amend your data, we accept your right to data portability if you ask. You can withdraw your consent or change your preferences at any time and also ask us to stop processing your data.

Be aware that subscribing to the newsletters, booking appointments or shopping online means you automatically agree to submit your information and us storing it in line with the GDPR guidelines. We will store your details for up to 7 years after your last visit.
